

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Genesis 3:15.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the seed of a woman who would come to bruise the head of the enemy - our greatest foe - ultimately crush him and everything he stands for.

Because of this seed, all of the world has access to eternal peace, eternal love, eternal joy, and most of all eternal life.

May those who don't know or acknowledge Him as Lord and Savior have a change of heart. May those who live for him continue on boldly.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Numbers 24:17-19.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the Star of Jacob that will crush Israel's enemies and exercise dominion over the earth.

Because of this we have full dominion, power, and privilege to walk boldly as your children here in the earth. The enemies of God cannot rise up against us, Instead, Jesus renders them powerless and use powerful in Him.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Psalm 2:7 and Proverbs 30:4.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the only begotten Son of God.

Because of this, as a Son of God, Jesus both ascended into heaven and came down, he wrapped up the waters in his garment, and he established all ends of the earth.

And he will reign forever and ever in eternal Glory -- and we will have the pleasure of worshipping Him forever!

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Psalm 72:17.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being blessed by the nations. His name and notoriety are known throughout the earth.

His name endures forever!

His fame continues as long as the sun!

All the nations call him blessed!

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Psalm 89:27.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the first-born of God.

He is the highest of the kings of the earth!

He has the highest name in the earth!

He is the firstborn among the brethren and because of this we share in this royal brotherhood and are joint-heirs with Christ!

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Psalm 110:4.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as a priest like Melchizedek.

He is our High Priest!

He entered us into his royal Priesthood!

He gave us full access to the heavenlies that we may boldly enter the throne of grace!

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Psalm 118:22-23.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the Chief Cornerstone.

He is the most essential element in the building of the Kingdom, the Church and the Body of Christ.

Without him, it all falls apart. But with Him it all holds together and will last for eternity!

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Psalm 118:26.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the King that comes in the name of the Lord.

He is the chosen King of the Lord our God!

He is the King of Kings!

He reigns and rules forever!

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Psalm Isaiah 7:14.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the born of a virgin.

Father the virgin birth is essential to the coming of our Lord because it means that no man could glory in the life, death, or resurrection of Christ. And no man could glory in the finished work of the cross.

You did this all as a part of your divine master plan to win our hearts back to you.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Isaiah 7:4, 8:8-10.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being called Immanuel - God with us.

Christ's physical presence on earth became the full embodiment of the Lord with us and dwelling among men. Thank you for your presence that is still forever with us through your precious Holy Spirit.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Jeremiah 30:9.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the born a King.

Jesus was given the rights, power, and honor as the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords.

And even when Herod tried his best to rid the world of our Lord, God your hands of protection were there to insure all of scripture was fulfilled and no harm would come to him.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Jeremiah 31:15.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the target of an infant boy massacre.

Even though the evil intentions of Herod sought to take the life of Christ, he was spared so that countless more could have access to eternal life.

A gift I will not take for granted.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Isaiah 2:1-4, Micah 4:18.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the one who established the eternal Kingdom.

Lord, your Kingdom is eternal and is established in the earth through your children through of Jesus Christ.

May your Kingdom come and your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Hosea 11:1.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as fleeing to Egypt.

God thank you for ministering angels, the discernment of the wise men, and Jesus' obedient parents, who heeded your voice and fled to Egypt for safety and protection.

Lord, thank you for safe places and hiding places where we may retreat in times of distress and persecution.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Micah 5:1-5.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being born in Bethlehem.

God you make no mistakes about our birthplace. It has significance to our purpose here on earth, just as it did with Jesus.

Thank you for pre-destined birthplaces that will set into motion the fulfillment of your plans and purposes of our lives.

And even when Herod tried his best to rid the world of our Lord, God your hands of protection were there to insure all of scripture was fulfilled and no harm would come to him.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Malachi 3:1.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being preceded by a Forerunner.

Lord thank you for those who go before us to blaze trails, be forerunners, and prepare the way for us to walk. Without them, what you've called us to do would be more challenging.

Even though they may not get their due recognition, their contributions to your overall divine master plan are priceless!

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Malachi 4:2-3.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the Sun of Righteousness.

In other words, Jesus is the “son of vindication.” He is coming to vindicate and avenge for God’s people and will judge all sin.

This vindication will be bright, clear, and noticeable to all like the brightness of the morning sun.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ’s birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Malachi 4:5-6.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about in this scripture as being the coming of Elijah.

God thank you for Jesus coming to fulfill all that Elijah established and as a preview of his divine departure by way of his resurrection and ascension into Heaven.

From great power, great authority, and great miracles - Jesus fulfilled them all! He is the fulfillment of the Law of the Prophets.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ’s birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Luke 1:1-25.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about previously as having a forerunner who would go before Him to prepare the way. This scripture is the fulfillment of that prophecy.

Thank you for those who are called to be the forerunners in the Body of Christ; those who will prepare the way, blaze trails, and make new paths for others to come and follow.

May I never take for granted, mock, or murmur against the forerunners. Their life’s purpose is so essential to the Body of Christ and without them, many others would not be able to walk fully as God has called them.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ’s birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Luke 1:26-38.

Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about previously as being born of a virgin. This scripture is the fulfillment of that prophecy.

Thank you for children of God like Mary, who chose to live holy, pure lives before you, so they can be used in great service.

Help me to keep a pure heart, holy disposition, and a willing, obedient spirit to your will, way, and desire for my life.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ’s birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Luke 1:39-45.

There is a constant reminder of the sacredness of the birth of Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about previously. This scripture is the fulfillment of those prophecies.

Thank you for kinship relationship with family and friends, where I can find solace, support, and camaraderie through life's precious moments.

Help me to be the kinship type of person who has opened doors and an open heart towards those precious souls you've entrusted to me and my life.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Luke 1:46-56.

There is a constant reminder of the sacredness of the birth of Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about previously. This scripture is the fulfillment of those prophecies.

May a song like Mary's rise up out me that fully expresses my gratitude, appreciation and love for the Lord for the things he has done and the favor he extends to me and my family.

Help me to be sensitive to the move of the Holy Spirit in my life, so I don't miss such precious, gracious moments.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Luke 1:57-66.

There is a constant reminder of the sacredness of the birth of Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about previously. This scripture is the fulfillment of those prophecies.

Thank you for birthing forerunners and message bearers. Our society deeply needs them to prepare the way and to speak to the signs of the times.

Help me to be sensitive and mindful of their role and impact in the Body of Christ and the burden they carry for your truth and love towards mankind.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Luke 1:67-80.

There is a constant reminder of the sacredness of the birth of Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about previously. This scripture is the fulfillment of those prophecies.

Thank you for the reminder of a father's role in decreeing, declaring, and prophesying the Lord's truth and purpose over his children.

Help my family and I to hold the man's role of husband, father, protector, and provider as sacred, honorable and necessary to the fulfillment of our family's purpose in the earth.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

Dear Lord, I thank you for your fulfillment of Luke 2:1-21.

There is a constant reminder of the sacredness of the birth of Jesus the Messiah was prophesied about previously. This scripture is the fulfillment of those prophecies.

I am forever grateful the birth of Christ! Without Him the world would have had no Savior and we'd forever be a slave to sin.

This serves as a reminder that my conception and birth doesn't need perfect circumstances, in order for me to have a righteous calling from you.

The life Christ lived and the sacrifice He made on the cross be forever etched into my heart, so I can live a life worthy of all that he has done for us.

May our hearts keep the focus on Christ's birth, purpose and fulfillment, during this Holy Season.

In Jesus Name, Amen.

